Field Trip!

Thursdays at 7:30pm, and Sundays at 3pm
January 2011

Happy New Year!

Hopefully, you enjoyed the holidays in good spirit. There have been plenty of shows on both FM and TV to assist you in capturing the joy and hope of a new year.

Last month, I promised we would be busy in 2011. Indeed, we are already off and running!

On Thursday the 6th at 7:30pm, we debut our new agricultural TV series Field Trip! I’d be surprised if every week you didn’t think “Wow! I didn’t know that!” at least once. It was three years in the making and the folks that are listed in the credits deserve a great deal of thanks.

Please join us in Alamogordo on Wednesday the 19th. From 9a – 11a, we will be at Plateau Espresso for a Coffee Visit. It will be good to see old friends and, hope you will let us buy you a cup of coffee and allow us to introduce ourselves.

It is a month of Jazz, too. FM has some special features during the Las Cruces celebration. Each Thursday evening, TV will present Jazz programming. Everything culminates with a special performance by the Jim Cullum Band on Sunday evening the 23rd at the NMSU Recital Hall. The crew from the Riverwalk radio show (Saturdays at 8p) always puts on a great show. Plus, you can join us at the Ramada Inn afterwards to meet the band members. Call 646-2222 for tickets.

Here is to a great 2011!

ON THE COVER
Field Trip!
Thursdays at 7:30pm and Sundays at 3pm beginning 1/6

KRWG’s newest local production series debuts on January 6th. With support from the Cooperative Extension Service and the New Mexico Department of Agriculture Field Trip! will take you through the process to discover exactly how our agricultural products get to market. Each week we’ll take you on a Field Trip! to learn about cheese, beef, chile and pecans without ever leaving your home.
The Rochester International Jazz Festival features performances by an eclectic group of musicians, including jazz and blues singer Catherine Russell, arranger and trombonist Slide Hampton and jazz trio The Bad Plus. Between concerts at Rochester, New York's Eastman School of Music, the artists candidly discuss their music. The fourth episode includes selections from all three performers, along with the musical highlights from other festival venues.

Riverwalk’s Jim Cullum Jazz Band Concert
Sunday, January 23rd at 7pm, New Mexico State University Atkinson Recital Hall
Tickets: Call 575-646-2222, M-F 8am to 5pm

Join KRWG for one of the final Jam Session concerts at the Atkinson Recital Hall on the NMSU campus, Sunday evening, January 23rd at 7 pm with a reception to meet band members at the Ramada Palms Resort at the corner of University Avenue and Valley Drive immediately following the concert.

The world famous Jim Cullum Jazz Band plays jazz in the classical manner in the style of the small, hot ensembles prior to WWII with a repertoire covering a lot of ground from the 19th century cakewalks to the small pre-war Benny Goodman ensembles. The Jazz Band stars in its own public radio series, Riverwalk Jazz, broadcasting since 1987 and heard on KRWG at 8 pm on Saturdays.

This concert is made possible by Edward Jones (Connie Lee), Preston Contemporary Art Center, Quinones Homes and Ramada, and is coordinated by NMSU Professor of Music Jim Shearer, as part of the Las Cruces Jam Session two month exhibition/events calendar telling the story of American Cultural Diplomacy Through Jazz.

A special post holiday thank you to the El Paso Brass (Kenneth Capshaw, Richard Lambrecht, Allan Kaplan, James Shearer, Sam Trimble, and special guest Curt Warren), Jackye Meinecke of Enchanted Gardens and the staff of the Rio Grande Theatre for a delightful evening of holiday music. Our best wishes for the New Year, and a note of gratitude to all of our members and those who donated to the KRWG-FM year-end appeal. You make possible the best programming in public radio with your generous support. Thank you!
