Economy got you DOWN?

Invest in Public Radio

Wondering how best to spend your advertising budget this fiscal year? Become an underwriter for public radio! Successful companies know that times like these call for increasing their public outreach to stay competitive and WUNC’s diverse mix of news and cultural programming reaches approximately 260,000 thoughtful listeners each and every week from the Triad to the Outer Banks.

Underwriting is an affordable, cost-effective way to complement your company’s advertising efforts and best of all your support of public radio is tax-deductible. Contact WUNC today and learn how to reach an audience of professional, well-educated consumers. When times are tough, invest wisely!

Learn more at www.wunc.org/support/business